

I do not want Novice or Technician-Plus allocations broadened into the General-class CW spectrum. These license classes have a known upgrade path that they should take if they wish to participate in amateur radio. I want this proposal to be sent back to the ARRL for more work. Other possibilities of band reapportionment are to cut the spectrum allocation for Novice and Tech-Plus for reallocation to phone use, but not expand Novice and Tech-Plus capabilities.